

Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery – Half day

Who is this course aimed for

This ½ day awareness course is aimed at professionals and volunteers working with adults, children and/or young people and the general public. The course raises awareness of the impacts of Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery providing delegates with increased knowledge and understanding. The content explores; forms of trafficking, modern slavery and child sexual exploitation.

By the end of the course delegates will be able to:

Learning outcomes

- Understand human trafficking and slavery of children, young people and adults.
- Understand how to identify a trafficked person or a person held in slavery.
- Understand the role of local and national agencies in combating human trafficking and slavery of children, young people and adults.
- Understand how trafficking and slavery affects children, young people and adults.
- Understand organisational responsibilities for responding to trafficking and slavery issues.

Benefits to Organisation

All courses are designed to increase skills and knowledge and to develop working practice. We can provide opportunities for employees to develop their continuous professional development (CPD) through our training courses.

We offer bespoke courses and tailored feedback to customers detailing the training impact on staff awareness, knowledge and capabilities. We aim to maximise staff performance and customer outcomes.

Prices

½ day courses – £40 per person Minimum of 10 delegates. Maximum of 15 delegates per course. Please contact us about organisational day rates. Email – trainingservices@hafancymru.co.uk .